

Shareholder Document Guide

You have today received several documents from Misys in respect of the following:

- The proposed acquisition of Sophis Group by Misys plc and the proposed disposal by Misys of its remaining shareholding in Allscripts
A white circular
A white proxy card
- The Return of Cash to shareholders by way of a B Share Scheme
A blue circular
A blue proxy card
A blue election form
A prepaid envelope

Or, if you receive your shareholder communications electronically, you should go to the Company's website at www.misys.com to view the circulars.

Your Company will be holding two General Meetings on 11 February 2011, one at 9.30am (in respect of the proposed acquisition) and a second at 9.50am (in respect of the proposed Return of Cash). Note that the two matters are not conditional upon each other.

What do you need to do next?

It is important that you read both circulars carefully. Your Board believes that all the resolutions being proposed at the meetings are in the best interests of shareholders and recommends that you vote in favour of them.

How do I vote?

To vote on the resolutions that relate to the acquisition of the Sophis Group and disposal of the remaining shares in Allscripts, please complete the white proxy card.

To vote on the resolutions that relate to the Return of Cash to shareholders, please complete the blue proxy card.

Both proxy cards are prepaid and must be received by Equiniti no later than 48 hours before the respective General Meeting.

If you wish to vote your shares electronically please go to www.sharevote.co.uk and log on using your Voting ID, Task ID and Shareholders' Reference Number which you will find on your respective proxy cards enclosed.

How can I participate in the Return of Cash?

In order for Misys to be able to complete the proposed Return of Cash it must first be approved by Shareholders at the General Meeting so it is important that you complete and return the blue Proxy Card.

You have three choices as to how you can receive your cash or you can choose a combination of all three choices.

In order to choose how you receive your cash you must complete and return the blue Election Form in the prepaid envelope (both of which are enclosed) within the time stated on the form. Detailed instructions on how to make your choice are set out in Part V of the blue circular.

Please note that if you do not complete and return the Election Form you will be deemed to have chosen Alternative 3: Final Redemption.

Document Checklist

Please check that you have completed and returned the following documents if you wish to (i) vote at the General Meetings (unless you have voted electronically) and (ii) elect how to receive your cash:

White Proxy Card
Blue Proxy Card
Blue Election Form

Shareholder Helpline

If you are still unsure as to how to vote at the General Meetings or how you can participate in the Return of Cash we have arranged for a Shareholder Helpline to be made available between the hours of 8.30am and 5.30pm (London time) on any business day. The helpline will remain open until 29 April 2011.

The Shareholder Helpline numbers are as follows:

0871 384 2546 (from inside the UK)

+44 121 415 0271 (from outside the UK)

The Shareholder Helpline will not however provide advice on the merits of the B Share Alternatives or give tax or financial advice. Please note that calls to these numbers may be monitored or recorded.

Calls to 0871 384 2546 are charged at 8 pence per minute from a BT landline. Other service providers' costs may vary. Calls to +44 121 415 0271 are charged at applicable international rates, if called from outside the United Kingdom.
